FROM THE HELM

October 2017

Well, Irma is gone and what a mess she made. As you know we had to reschedule the 29th Inshore Classic until next year. It was a tough decision but the right one based on local property damage, conditions of the ramps and most of all the safety of our anglers. We have decided to hold the silent auction at the club picnic on October 14th. Proceeds will still go to Gratitude America so make sure you bring some cash to the event.

Make sure you check further on in The Chum Line for the super events we have scheduled for October. It looks like October will be surf-fishing month with Jeff Rafter doing Quick Tips and Gary Fisher running the Surf Tournament scheduled the following week. As I mentioned our club picnic on is on October 14th and we have some great events and prizes so make sure you all sign up.

Pat and I hope you all made it through Irma without a scratch and are safe and sound in the little slice of paradise we call home.

Please be careful out there, there is a lot of floating debris on the water.

ATTENTION SURF ANGLERS AND WANT-TO-BE SURF ANGLERS
 SPECIAL SURF FISHING SEMINAR
 Given by Capt. Jeff Rafter

WHEN: October 3rd Prior to the Monthly Meeting

TIME: 5:30 PM- 7:00 PM

WHERE: VFW - location of FSC Monthly Meeting

WHY: Just in time for our October 7, 2017 Surf Tournament

As an accomplished surf fisherman and presenter of many surf fishing seminars, Captain Jeff Rafter, and member of the FSC Board of Directors, has offered to give a free 1 ½ hour seminar to club members and guests. Jeff has designed a hands-on seminar on surf fishing rig tying prior to our October Monthly Meeting. And if that's not enough, Captain Rafter is also our Guest Speaker for Meeting.

You can't miss this seminar or meeting!!!

October Fishing Forecast

September was a difficult month for many in our community. The tropics produced extreme conditions, which affected individuals and businesses. Our community, once again, has shown compassion and resilience. As the recovery effort continues remember to assist when and where you can. A small amount of help from many will create a large change. Let's also make a conscious decision to buy local to help our business friends to recover. Now on to the fishing!

Ahh... cooler weather! The fish will be feeling the temperature change this month also. A look back at my last few years of logbooks reminded me that larger flounder should be showing up shortly.

My logs indicated that I need to stock up on red jigheads and fishfinder rigs.

When fishing in the creeks, I like to put a mud minnow or a finger mullet on a 1/4 ounce red jighead, cast up current and retrieve slowly through one of the deep holes of the creek. To target the "doormats", fish the inlets, on an outgoing tide, with a fishfinder rig and a larger mullet on a circle hook. With either tactic, wait for line to get heavy and then just come tight on your line and reel the flatties up to the boat! Inshore enthusiasts can also expect a steady sheepshead and black drum bite during October. Target these fish around structure or any deeper area that has rock piles or oysters. The topwater sea trout bite will also warm up as the water temperature cools down.

October will be a transition month for surf fisherman. Make sure you take advantage of the water temperatures above 68 degrees, by getting to the beach to hunt pompano and whiting.

These fish will start to migrate south soon, in search of warmer water. This will probably be the last month for targeting tarpon on the beach as well. Offshore anglers will enjoy an active bite in many ranges of water, this month.

Bottom fishing on the wrecks and reefs, in the 10 to 20 mile range, will yield grouper, sea bass, and cobia. While moving from spot to spot, be on the lookout for sailfish crashing bait at the surface. A trip to the ledge will find dolphin and wahoo in the trolling spread.

And for those adventurous anglers willing to trek out to the roll down, be ready to fly your marlin flag on the way home.

Hello Anglers...Not much action this month at the Weigh stations --- maybe Irma had a little something to do with that? And, the Pier was closed as was Backwater Bait & Tackle so any weigh slips at these two locations are not included in this month's standings. Well now that Irma is gone let's get those lines in the water because there's still lots of good fishing out there & opportunity on the Leaderboard.

FYI.....We have a change in our southern-most weigh station --- Edgewater Bait is immediately replacing Lagoon Bait & Tackle. As a reminder our Weigh Stations are...

Palm Coast Marina

Flagler Pier

Big Al's Bait & Tackle

Backwater Bait & Tackle

Captain's Bait & BBQ @ Bing's Landing

& now - *Edgewater Bait, 108 E. Park Ave., Edgewater, FL 386.428.7711

If you need any additional contact information for any of these weigh stations please let me know. See you on the water.

Club Meeting Minutes 09-05-17

7:00 PM Quick Tips- Presented by Andy Block, rigging and equipment needed to catch redfish, flounder and trout.

Meeting Called to order at 7:30 PM

Pledge of Allegiance & Acknowledgement of our Veterans : Led by Pat Gleichmann

Passing of August's Minutes: Minutes of August 1, 2017 meeting were passed, motion made by Ellen Scheurer and seconded by Andy Block

Treasurer's Report: Gary Fisher said we have money in the bank, the bills are paid, we are on budget for our expenses and we should have a good return on the Fall Classic Tournament. We need help on the Fall Classic.

Welcome Visitors/New Members: We had 10 guests and got 4 new members out of the ten people at tonight's meeting. Out of the ten, five people were referred to the club by other members and two saw the club write up in the newspaper.

Announcements: Chuck Gleichmann said that, The Fall Classic Flyer is in the Sept. Chum Line. He said that the club is unpolitical in general, but at our July meeting, the speaker was Cameron Jaggard who spoke to us about draft Amendment 3 of the Modern Fisheries Act. This is moving through congress, send a letter to support this act to your local congressman or woman. Doing this gives recreational fisherman a voice. It will be voted on in Jacksonville on 9/29/17. This is to stop commercial fishermen from harvesting pogey/menhaden, public comments will be allowed at this meeting. Another concern that is moving through congress to be voted on is having to use 15% ethanol gas for a recreational boat.

Weigh Master Report & member fishing reports: Rita asked the members if they had any fishing reports. Some had fished but no reports were given. She said The Yearlong Tournament standings are in the Chum Line or online at our member's site. Snook season opened on Sept. 1st, so we should be filling in that spot on our standings soon also. There has been a weigh station change, the Edgewood Bait Shop has replaced the weigh station that used to be at Mosquito Lagoon. The Fishing Committee is looking for any tournament rule changes or ideas our members may have. If you have anything you would like addressed, please contact Rita or anyone on the committee about it.

OLD BUSINESS

Fall Charity Tournament: John Falter, told us that this tournament is scheduled for Sept. 22 – Captain's meeting & Sept. 23rd – Fishing Tournament. Last year, 102 anglers fished this tournament, everyone has a chance to win. The benefactor for the tournament is Gratitude America, the monies that we give them help bring 15-20 families to Marineland for a getaway weekend. This club has plenty of activities for our members. There is info on the tournament at the back table and a flyer was in your Sept. edition of the Chum Line. Help is needed at Highbridge, Vilano Beach and Dunlawton boat checkouts, please let John know if you are available to do any of these checkouts on Sept. 23rd. John said he needs raffle items and silent auction items for the tournament, the bucket of fun tickets are on sale at the back of the room. John told us he would like to see more members sign up for this tournament and it is a good way to learn how to catch fish and he is still learning himself. John told us that Andy said we will have good weather for the tournament.

Kayak Tournament Wrap Up: No report was given on this as Bill May was absent from the meeting.

New/Old Member Clinic: Walt Huresky told us that around 50 people attended this event, he complimented all the great speakers we had and thanked the volunteers who helped out. The clinic was held on August 12th at the Hammock Community Center from 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM. The next one will be on 3/24/18, everyone should attend, there is lots of information and things to learn. Chuck explained the member referral program to us. This is a program in which you have to refer someone to the club and if they become a club member, they put your name on the top of the application as the referral and if you refer 3 people who join the club, you get a very nice fishing shirt as a reward. The three people tonight who got shirts were: Chuck Zinzow, Brian Genk and Ron (Butch) Gorney. The Creekside Festival will be held at Princess Place Preserve on Old Kings Road on Oct. 7 & 8, from 10 AM – 4 PM. It is held by the Flagler Chamber of Commerce, he needs volunteers to help him man the table. This event helps us to invite people to join the club and let them know about us.

NEW BUSINESS:

Surf Tournament: Gary Fisher will be the chairman for this tournament. He told us that it will be held on Oct. 7th, the rules are easy, you have to be standing on the sand facing east. The Weigh In will be at Bings Landing, information about the weigh in will be in the Oct. issue of the Chum Line. All fish have to qualify as to the Florida Fishing Regulations, one change from last year is that the whiting have to be 11 inches long, from nose to pinched tail. There will be $600.00 worth of prize money paid out, a 50/50 and a raffle with prizes of a surf beach fishing cart and a $300 surf fishing rod. Everyone has a chance and multi species, or big fish will give you money, prizes for the free show up bonus will be $25.00 & $15.00 prizes.

Picnic: Rita Waddell will be the chairwoman for this tournament. She said it is one of our fun events, the director's put this on each year to show our appreciation for our members. This is a free event, you can eat all day long, there will be a cornhole toss game, horseshoes and a rod casting contest. Please sign up ASAP. The event will be held at Herschel King Park on Oct. 14th and it starts at 11 AM, the kids fishing contest will go from 11 AM-12 PM and at noon the food will arrive. Members are asked to sign up at the back table if you are attending, so we will know the amount of food needed and we ask if you can bring a side dish, appetizer or dessert to the picnic. Food will be BBQ chicken, Ribs and Italian sausage, peppers & onions, with ice tea, lemonade and water to drink, or you can BYOB if you wish. If you have a child, sign them up for the fishing contest. Deadline for signing up is Oct. 5th.
Any Other New Business:

Before the break, Chuck Gleichmann wanted to introduce Cpt. Mike Vickers, a club member, who writes the Flagler Fishing Report for the News Tribune. Mike travels with Florida Sportsman Magazine conducting Rig-it-Right seminars and is the winner of many local and state tournaments. He is our past Weigh Master and chairman of the Flagler Sportfishing Kids Free Clinic. Mike will be talking about preparing to fish the Fall Classic Tournament for Gratitude America who helps support veterans with PTSD. Last year we gave them almost $5,000. Oct. is our fun month with the picnic and the surf tournament. Friday, Sept. 22 is the Captains Meeting at Break Awayz in Flagler Beach at 7 PM, silent auction starts at 5:30 PM

Break

Guest Speaker: Captain Mike Vickers told us that he has been fishing Florida for 50 years now. He said that fishing structures change but the fish and bait react the same way. He asked how many members were fishing the tournament and about 5 people raised their hands. He told them that if they wanted to improve their fishing skills the way to do that is get involved with the tournaments and come to the weigh ins and ask questions of the other anglers and learn from them. He said the biggest redfish will pay $600 but the flounder also pays $600, so, go for the flounder, because most people will be trying to get a redfish. Plan ahead and scout out your fishing spots, fish and find out where the fish are, watch the tides and weather wise try to fish on a similar day to what the tournament day will be. Mike uses different hooks and baits on the many rods he brings with him, a top water bait, a crank bait that goes deep, a jighead, a weedless hook, he also uses freshwater stuff for saltwater fishing. He has live bait in the live well, like shrimp and mullet. He uses a plastic box item called a Hook Guard to protect himself from getting hooked by the treble hooks. He uses a Walk the Dog bait made by Rapala, you wiggle it and match it to your heartbeat while you are bouncing it. He likes dark colors for crank bait, the faster you crank it, the deeper it goes. All lures are tied with a loop knot. He uses Penn reels, a 7 ft. pole with a 20 lb fluorocarbon leader. If you want to keep your bait from dying in the live well, at Wal-mart in the aquarium section, get a $2.00 pump, plug it in and put it in your live well and it will keep your bait alive for a long time, in the summer months, you can put a few frozen bottles of salt water in there. Use salt water in case the bottle leaks. Mike also told us he likes to use corkscrew hooks and braided line and if the hook gets caught in the oyster bars, just whip the pole and the hook will shoot backward. He also loves Gulp scented bait with two colors to it. He said "Elephants Eat Peanuts", which means a big fish will eat a small bait. If the tide is slow use a float and set it to the depth you want it, they are aerodynamic, adjustable and quiet and it will sound like a popping cork. He also likes to use 10 lb hi pro, hi visible yellow line that he orders because when you are fishing around a dock, the line is easy to see if you get a bite. You will feel a bump when you have a flounder on, then dead weight, count to 8 or 10, he is only picking it up by the tail and turns it around to eat the mouth. Look for a structure that has bait around the area, look for oyster bars that are out of the water with low tides. If a bank has flat mud, in front of that will be some deep water and sometimes there can be trout in the deep water. Be Prepared – He sets up all his poles before he leaves the dock, get your bait the night before, get all your stuff ready ahead of time, you are out there to catch fish, not tie rigs. Great presentation, Cpt. Mike, and if you caught a fish to weigh in from Cpt. Mike's tips, thank him at the weigh in. Mike brought two Savage Gear shirts to give away. Winners were: Dusty Banks and Tom Morovich.

50/50 Winner: Prize of $185.00 was won by Mike Janzen Meeting adjourned at 9:00 PM

Hurricane Irma Lost: White and blue dock box. Contact Walt Huresky at wehuresky@gmail.com or 732-996-3899.

09-05-17 Monthly Meeting

President Capt. Chuck Gleichmann talked about the Fall Classic Tournament and stated that even though we are not political we should keep informed on up-coming laws that affect fishing our waters.

Treasurer Gary Fisher will be chairing the Surf Tournament on October 7th and gave details on species and raffle items.

John Falter, Chairman of the 29th Fall Classic, reported on the up-coming Tournament, what is needed and how Gratitude America intends to use the money.

Director Jeff Rafter explains what makes a surf rod great to a Club member with a great smile!

Weigh Master Rita Waddell reported on the Yearlong Tournament and announced that the weigh station in Mosquito Lagoon is Edgewater Bait.

Capt. Mike Vickers was our guest speaker at the September 5th meeting. His topic was how to prepare to be a better tournament fisherman.

To keep bait alive, use an electric pump and put a bottle of frozen salt water in the well/bucket.

Tom Morovec and Dusty Banks won these Savag Gear shirts in a raffle.

Andy Block presented a Quick Tips Seminar on Preparing for Tournament Fishing. Thanks Andy!

Membership Chairman Walt Huresky showed members the shirt that is available to a member who brings in three new members to the Club.

One of Capt. Mike's suggestions was to make a plan and stick to it. Here he has one of his lures in a case to protect lure and rod.

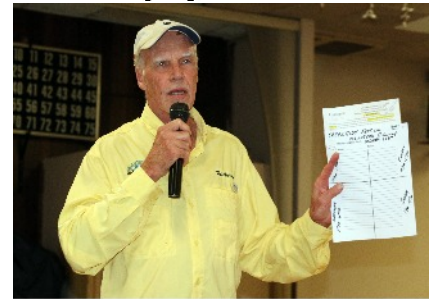

Capt. Vickers uses yellow braid so he can see his line in the water and ties a loop knot with lures.

Mike Crotts congratulates Mike Janzen on winning the $185.00 50/50 at the 09/05 Monthly Meeting.

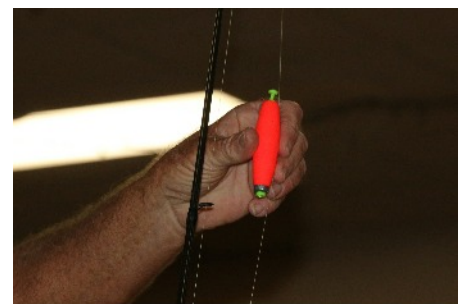

Weigh Master Rita Waddell is chairing this year's Annual Picnic on October 14th at Herschel King Park. Deadline to sign up to go is October 8th!

Membership Chairman Walt Huresky talked about our presence at Creekside Festival and the need for help to cover the Club's table there.

A good tip is to open the bail when you first feel a fish and to untangle your line under a dock.

01 hook with float system is aerodynamical with weight, quiet into the water and trout friendly.
